Frankfort.-The real economical need of the Kentucky mountains, according to the report of a survey made by agents for the Government Canning Club work to the State Department of Agriculture, is a solution of the elemental transportation problem of hauling a load both ways. They are producing little for sale, while wagon loads weighs 410 tons and has 24 driving roads twenty and thirty miles at a cost of an economical than a moral cast, for the conversion of corn into liquor multiplies its cash value, makes it easier to bandle and cheaper to transport. The Government agents intend to demonstrate that, risks aside, the canning of fruit is more profitable and more easily marketed. The mountains abound in wild blackberries, the best peaches and the finest sweet potatoes in Kentucky. The mountain people have no more to learn about the handling and marketing of fruits than the people of any other section, the report says. It only is more vital to them, because they are more bounteously supplied with the raw material, and it is their only esource. And the scalement that fruits are their only resources does not bespeak poverty? the report goes on to say. Properly developed the mountains of Kentucky should become a fruit pro duction region that will make the land valuable and the people wealthy.

The Government project is to teach the scientific method, which is simple enough, but requires the berries to be gathered in clean, wholesome recept

Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable

Compound. Philadelphia, Pa.-"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the painswere intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable ficate. Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief. After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way."-Mrs.Thomson, 649 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Ruggles Campground, July 25, 1914. -There are two campers this year who are over eighty years of age. Mrs. Harriett Stevens who is eighty-two and has never missed a campmeeting since the Minerya-Emergency . . . . . . . . 50 first one forty years ago, and Mrs. Eliza Shockley of Ewing who is eighty one and comes for the first time. Today Mrs. Shockley who is a loyal worker in the Southern Methodist Church, led the woman's meeting. A large crowd was out and a fine meeting was had.

Mr. J. R. Hinton led the morning rayer this morning, Rev. G. N. Jolly, D. D., of Ludlow preached at 10 a. m. Dr. Jolly is al ways interesting and always brings a belpful message. This morning in spite of the extremely hot weather, he had the very best aftention, arrived by the moon auto. Dr. Dickerson will assume charge of the meet

Mr. Frank H. Spencer and family of Maysville came out today to camp for

Rev. Geo. W. Bunton left this after noon with his family for Mt. Olivet, where he goes to preach tomorrow at Pena Grove Campmeeting, They will return Monday in time for the afternoon

Miss Julia Griffith of Connersville Ind., arrived this evening to spend sev eral days. She is the guest of her aunt Mrs, R. B. Griffith in the "Old Ken tucky Home."

Mr. J. Luther Markwell and family of Foxport joined the campers today. GUY COOMBS, ANNA NILSSON AND They have as their guests their daughter, Mrs. Omar Million and children of Mt. Sterling.

After staying away from campmeet ing four years, a thing thought impos sible, Harry Markwell, whom all the girls know and love, is again in our midst. Harry says he has been "on the read'' for some time,

Rev. M. T. Chandler of Cynthiana pastor of the M. E. Church South, arriv d this afternoon to enjoy Ruggley Campmeeting for awhile, Mr. J. William Tolle, the big Mays ville policeman, joined his family here this evening.

Mr. M. A. Wallingford, member of the Board of Directors of the Association came out today He will conduct the first Sunday praise service tomorrow.

Messrs, John R. Brodt of Maysville and W. P. Bowman of Vanceburg, men bers of the Board of Directors, came camp today. Mr. Bowman and his fam ly has been rusticating for sometime a a fishing camp on Kinney.

If you've never been at a Campmeet ng on a Saturday night you ought to try the experience once anyway. Peo ple who have families here and many who do not, come in on Saturdays to stay over till Monday. The campus always alive with folks on this night It is a pretty sight to see the young fo'ks promenading under the stately trees. And then they always ring the bell a little later on Saturday nights nore pupils during full six months, pro giving the young folks a fine oppor

Rev. Edwin Kirby preached this evening to a fine audience. It was his first sermon on Ruggles Campgrounds. If it is any indication of what we are to have tomorrow we are surely in for some fine Sunday preaching. Dr. Kirby is a successful pastor of First Church, East pils for the first six months and at least Liverpool, Ohio.
